Hire Things gets you business!

Customers want to get organised at their convenience, and they want to do it online. Hire Things gets your hire business online and in front of those customers, allowing them to engage you directly.

Get found. We make sure your listings get noticed. Hire Things listings get great search engine results due to our size and strength as the marketplace and our smart technology. Thousands of pre-qualified customers visit Hire Things each week actively looking for things to hire. We get you maximum online exposure to your target market.

How it works. People aren't looking for something general; they are looking for something specific... your products, places and services for hire:

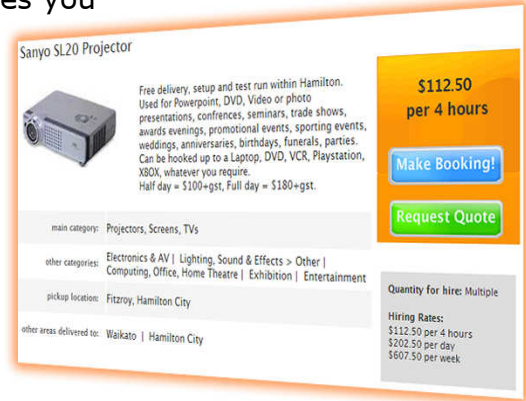

- You or we list your actual things for hire, with descriptions and photos.
- Choose categories that work for you and define your service areas if you deliver.
- Enter standard hire rates, plus any special rates, offers, discounts or terms.
- Customers find what they want via Google™, or directly on www.HireThings.co.nz.
- Customers can get instant estimates and place booking & quote requests.
- You get notified so you can give a firmer quote, or accept or modify the booking online.
- Customers pay you directly for your service.
- You and the customer have 24/7 access to the booking details online. Never lose track.

New Zealand's hiring and renting marketplace

Full online Hire Shop and Booking System. Hire Things gives you your own online hire storefront and quote & booking facility. Anyone can browse your catalogue, get estimates online and request a booking or a firmer quote, all at their convenience and anytime of day or night.

It's smart internet marketing. List your things for hire at no cost. We only take a small success fee after we get you real business. List as many things as you like. Hire Things is one of the most cost effective and fastest growing online marketing channels available today.

How much does it cost? You have a couple of options... Hire Success: Free to register & list your things yourself on the site, and we charge you a 3.5% success fee only on completed hires; so if there's no hire there's no fee¹. Hire Plans: We also have a number of optional premium listing plans should you want maximum online exposure.
